OUTREACH UPDATE

 2nd Annual Artisan's Fair
Outreach would like to thank all the SV artisans, bakers, and volunteers who made the 2nd Annual Artisan's Fair a successful fundraiser. Outreach raised $2,000 which will be donated to the Queen Anne's Emergency Center Fund. Thanks also go to all the Villagers who attended and supported the artisans, the bake sale, and the lunch offerings. Without all your support, Outreach would not be able to support so many worthwhile causes in Queen Anne's County. More pictures are available online.

SV Outreach Program, Inc. always welcomes new members. If you think you might be interested in joining us, please come to our next meeting on Tuesday, November 8, 7:15 p.m., in the Grand Ballroom; meetings are the second Tuesday of every month. Helping others does, indeed, feel good.

Third Annual Food Drive to Begin Soon!

Reminder: Start Planning for Your Food Drive Contribution!

Your SV Outreach will be collecting food for our third annual delivery to QAC Social Services. The drive will take place November 9—13 with delivery on November 14 (in time for Thanksgiving distribution).

Select a “drop-off” house from the following for your food donation:

Sue and Dave Peterson	635 Harmony
Linda Blume	224 Orchestra
Larry and Carol Hodges	141 Encore
Jack and Joan Hennessey	146 Sonata
BJ McClueb	819 Harmony
Jim and Carlene Cooke	225 Opera
Jim and Dorothy Hamm	231 Concerto
Scott and Rosemary Page	227 Harmony
Lloyd and Betty McAtee	321 Overture

Suggested items include canned soups, vegetables, fruits, pasta, pasta sauce, peanut butter, jelly, mayo, tuna fish, cereals, and any other food stuffs that you would like to donate. Please, no outdated items from your pantry!

Our goal this year is 2000 units of food (or more!). Last year we collected 1883 items.

Please start looking at the grocery flyers for sales and stocking up to help us make our goal. The need is great, but so is the feeling of doing this good deed!

PUBLICATIONS & COMMUNICATIONS UPDATE

Local Events

The Committee thanks Linda Blume for her effort in providing the local events for the Libretto.

Daily Bulletin

Check the Daily Bulletin often for announcements that come up at the last minute. It is the committee’s intent to keep SV residents informed. To submit something for the Daily Bulletin, contact Carol Hodges at lhodges@atlanticbb.net.

Directory

If you use a printed copy of the Directory, please make sure it is current. Emails and phone numbers change periodically. Also, there are many new residents.

All Are Welcome

Everyone is welcome to attend the P & C meeting on Monday, November 7, at 2 p.m. in the Grand Ballroom.

CLUBS AND CLASSES

SINGLES

Singles Outing

The Singles had a fun time and lots of great conversation at the Four Seasons Restaurant in September. The next outing is a trip to Homestead Gardens on October 23. We will lunch at Killarney House in Davidsonville. Meet at the Clubhouse at 1 p.m. to carpool. Please sign up in the Activities Book.

BIRD CLUB

The Bird Club traveled to Pickering Creek Audubon Center on September 25 for the first “Walk ‘n Talk” of the season entitled “Hawks.” After discussing the most common hawks in our area (red-tailed, red-shouldered, Cooper’s, and sharp-shinned) as well as the colorful kestrel, we walked to the freshwater wetlands overlook. Birding definitely started slowly – along the path we saw lots of butterflies (buckeyes, monarchs, a clouded sulfur, a silver spotted skipper, and a tiny orange and black butterfly about the size of a nickel) and dragonflies galore. We even noted bright orange milkweed bugs on the milkweed – the bugs help split open the mature seed pods so the seeds may be dispersed by the wind. Once on the viewing platform, we scanned the sky for several minutes before sighting some turkey and black vultures soaring over the treetops in the distance. But patience did pay off. We eventually saw a yellowthroat who seemed as interested in us as we were in her! Also spotted were a bald eagle, a juvenile bald eagle, barn swallows (who, our guide told us, should have migrated by now), a yellow-shafted flicker, a mockingbird, American crows, and a flock of chimney swifts (“little cigars with wings”). A walk along the freshwater pond yielded no bird sightings, but a painted turtle was resting on top of hurricane debris, apparently hoping that the sun would make an appearance (it didn’t). We only spotted one hawk on our walk – either a Cooper’s or a sharp-shinned – too far away to positively identify. Watch the Activities Book for future Bird Club outings and activities. – Linda Blume

GAZEBO and VEGETABLE GARDEN CLUBS

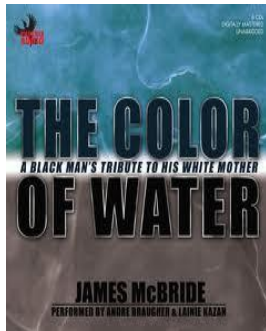

Our garden activities have been pretty much limited to weeding and deadheading, although several residents have been harvesting herbs from our two herb beds. Most flowers have gone to seed, and we are letting them stand to provide feed for the birds. A few daffodils have been planted for spring blooming.

It is our goal to have one caretaker for each of the twenty beds in the Gazebo Garden. Each of the current caretakers has been contacted to see if they will continue their support in 2012. For various reasons, several residents will not be able to participate, so we have only thirteen volunteers signed up for 2012. There will be a meeting in the Clubhouse on Thursday, October 27, at 7 p.m. to make plans for next year. All residents are invited to attend. We hope to sign up seven new volunteers. Our primary goal at the meeting is to have one person agree to act as the chief gardener. A list of the duties of that position will be presented at the meeting.

As for the Veggie Garden, we have obtained permission to use the plot for another year from the new tenant farmer, but with a smaller area. Unfortunately, this means fewer farmers. We will work out the details at a winter meeting. We continue to harvest flowers, lettuce, and many eggplants, and we are looking forward to next year!

READING-FOR-FUN BOOK CLUB

The Book Club met on September 20, 2011, at the Clubhouse to discuss the book State of Wonder by Ann Patchett. The story revolves around Dr. Swenson, a renowned doctor, who is leading a group of doctors on a secret project to determine why women in the Amazonian tribe are able to bear children into their late sixties. Marina Singh is sent to investigate the death of one of the doctors. This book was selected by Joan Hennessey, and was rated 7.2 on a scale of 1 to 10. Joan provided a wonderful peanut butter pie and peach tea for dessert. A copy of this book will be placed in the Book Club Section of the library for resident access.

The book for our October 20 meeting is The Color of Water by James Mc Bride. This book was recommended by Ellen Reid.

SNEAKERS

Silent Auction News

By now everyone should have received an invitation to the Silent Auction on November 5. We hope everyone can attend. Feel free to invite friends. If you have a conflict, buy some raffle tickets ahead of time or make a contribution. Please sign up in the Activities Book at the Clubhouse so that we can have plenty of food and drink.

Remember if you would like to contribute an item or service, please contact Helena Joy or Linda Farrar before October 25.

Pastries for Parents

Our first book giveaway at Kennard will be Thursday, October 27, and Friday, October 28. If you can help, please sign up in the Activities Book.

NEIGHBORHOOD NEWS

SOFTBALL

Symphony Village had a successful softball practice on Thursday, October 6, with 12 men showing up to warm up their arms and bats. They are going to continue the Thursday 10:30 a.m. practices every week as long as the weather permits. Anyone interested in joining us need only show up on Thursdays. Any questions, call Joe Shanahan 516-445-7625.

GRANDCHILDREN'S HALLOWE'EN PARTY

Don't miss the Hallowe'en Party to be held Saturday, October 22, from 2—4 p.m. at the Clubhouse for grandchildren ages 11 and under. Join us for fun, crafts, games, pictures, snacks, and a costume parade complete with 'trick or treating.' The price is $5 per child. Please sign up in the Activities Book by October 17. Any questions please call Carlene Cooke, 443-242-8146, or Linda Farrar, 443-262-8744.

Do any of you have teenage grandchildren who need community service hours? The Hallowe'en party is a fun way to earn a couple of hours by supervising games, running the tattoo booth, etc. Let us know!*

ALL-YOU-CAN-EAT BULL AND OYSTER ROAST

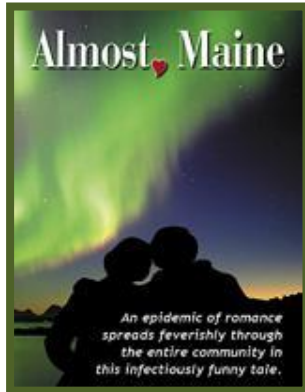

American Legion Jeff Davis Post #18 in Centerville is holding a Bull and Oyster Roast on Saturday, October 29, 1 – 5 p.m. In addition to all-you-can-eat roast beef, oysters (fried, stewed, and raw), vegetables, and desserts, the event includes games such as a plant and a cake wheel. All Symphony Village residents are cordially invited to attend. The cost is $30 per person. All proceeds benefit the American Legion post and all the wonderful work they do for Veterans.

ANNOUNCING:

Church Hill Theatre's final production of the 2011 Season:

What: ALMOST, MAINE, BY JOHN CARIANI

When: November 4-20 (First three weekends in November)

Michael C. Whitehill, a prominent actor/director in this area's theatre, is directing Almost, Maine. This “whimsical and imaginative tale by award-winning actor and playwright John Cariani begins on a cold, clear, moonless night in the middle of winter. But all is not quite what it seems in the remote, mythical town of Almost, Maine. As the northern lights hover in the star-filled sky above, the residents of Almost find themselves falling in and out of love in unexpected and often hilarious ways. Knees are bruised, hearts are broken, but the bruises heal, and the hearts mend—almost.”

Also featured is SVer Karin Larsen who is joining Church Hill Theatre for the first time as an actress in this play. She is very excited to be working with this talented director and cast. She hopes that SV will come and see this “delightful midwinter’s night’s dream,” as it has been described. The Wall Street Journal named Almost, Maine one of the best regional theater productions of the 2004-2005 season. Following its off-Broadway run, Almost, Maine was chosen for inclusion in Smith and Kraus’ New Playwrights: Best Plays of 2006. This play has been produced in the United States but also all over the world.

RESTAURANT REVIEW

4 Seasons Bistro

by Dortehea Turek

Eight Symphony Village Singles dined at the 4 Seasons Bistro last month, a restaurant in Chester which advertises both American and Mediterranean cuisine. We were seated at a long table which accommodated eight people comfortably. Everyone ordered from an extensive menu offering a wide variety of food. One of our party decided to have an appetizer and dessert for her meal—the appetizer was Shrimp Coconut, and I was told it was very tasty. Another of our party ordered mignon flatbread and cream of crab soup. The soup was declared delicious and the flatbread was filet mignon, caramelized onions, pine nuts, mushrooms, and gorgonzola cheese. The serving was more than ample and half was taken home. Another person ordered Orange Roughy Imperial, a fish filet with crab imperial, baked potato, and mixed vegetables.

I ordered Rockfish Mare Chiara, pan-seared fish with PEI mussels in marinara sauce on angel hair pasta, and I can report that this dish was delicious. The mussels were especially good, but it could be made with any fish. It had a wonderful flavor. Another diner ordered Veal Chesapeake—a veal dish with wild mushrooms, creamy rosé sauce, and crabmeat on angel hair pasta. This diner commented she had eaten it before in other restaurants, and this dish definitely lived up to her expectations. It was tasty with a good amount of crab in the sauce. The sixth single had Mare Monte, a combination of chicken, veal, shrimp, artichoke hearts, asparagus tips, roasted peppers, and lemon bierre blanc sauce on angel hair pasta. She had eaten this selection before and enjoyed it enough to order it again. The remaining two singles ordered Lettuce Wedge BLT salad, which included smoked Gouda cheese and gorgonzola dressing. They split this salad and ate it before their meal. The entrée they ordered was All Wheat Veggie Lovers with shrimp, light marinara sauce, goat cheese, and whole wheat pasta. They reportedly enjoyed this and again the portion was ample enough that some was brought home. Four of the singles had dessert: two had crème brûlée which they enjoyed, and two shared a plate of two cannolis. They said they were delicious. Service was good. However, the waitress had difficulty obliging our request for separate checks causing an extra wait.

The menu prices are reasonable. Appetizers are listed at $8-$11, flatbread sandwiches are $8-$10, and main dishes are $20-$25. Vegetarian meals are $13, and main dish salads are $12-$25. Because all of meals were especially delicious, we unanimously declared we would go back to the 4 Seasons Bistro again.

The restaurant is located on Postal Road in the Rainbow Plaza in Chester. Phone 410-643-9000. <http://www.4seasonsbistro.com>

PERSONAL AD

WANTED: Old, or not so old, fishing lures, reels, and rods you no longer want. Please call George Drake, 410-758-8266.

RECIPE

Eggplant Meatballs

From the kitchen of Bea Trotta

3 T. canola oil	1 T. basil
1 garlic clove, minced	1/8 tsp. pepper, optional
1 large eggplant, peeled and diced	2 eggs, beaten
1 T. water	½ c. grated cheese
1 c. bread crumbs	marinara sauce
½ c. fresh parsley, chopped	grated mozzarella

- In large saucepan, heat oil and gently sauté garlic until golden. Add diced eggplant, water, and cover. Reduce heat. Steam until eggplant is very soft.
- In a mixing bowl combine eggplant, bread crumbs, parsley, basil, pepper, eggs, and grated cheese. Mix well. Refrigerate for 20 minutes. Remove from refrigerator and form into balls.
- Place meatballs on a greased pan and bake them at 325° F for 35 minutes. (If you prefer, you can fry the meatballs in frying oil.)
- Garnish with marinara sauce and grated mozzarella and bake for an additional 5 minutes to melt mozzarella. The meatballs can also be served with your favorite pasta and sauce. Serves 4—6.

LOCAL NEWS & EVENTS

By Linda Blume

NOTE: There are too many Local Events this month to include all of them in the Libretto. The entire list appears on the SV Website SV Website, and we will put a hard copy of the complete list in the Libretto binder that is located in the Wall Street room of the Clubhouse. Also, if you do not have a computer, Nancy at the Clubhouse can print a hard copy of the complete list of Local Events from the website for you.

Estate Treasures and Fashion Show
