COMMITTEE REPORTS

LIFESTYLE COMMITTEE – Donna Donaldson and Chris Pariseau

Memorial Day Picnic – Sunday, May 26, noon to 3 p.m.

Don't forget to sign up in the Activities Book at the Clubhouse for the community Memorial Day Picnic. We need to get a headcount of those who will be coming to this event, so please sign up by Monday, May 20. The cost is $16 per person, $8 for children ages 6-12, and no charge for children 5 and under. Payment is due when you sign up. Make your check payable to SVHOA. This is the first of four major community picnics. Harmony Way residents are hosting this event. If you live on Harmony Way, you are encouraged to sign up for one of the many committees where you can provide help or assistance as needed.

Chips and dip will be available at 12:30 p.m. with an Adams Ribs' catered luncheon 1–3 p.m. The menu is BBQ chicken, pork BBQ, bourbon beef brisket, hamburgers, hot dogs, coleslaw, pasta salad, potato salad, garden salad, baked beans, rolls, condiments, and desserts. Water, tea, and lemonade are free; soda, beer, and wine will be sold separately. As well as all the wonderful food, guests will enjoy bocce ball, cornhole toss, and water volley ball.

The Memorial Day Picnic, the first of the major community get-togethers, is an excellent opportunity for the newest residents of Symphony Village to come out and meet some of their longer-term neighbors in the Village. Come one, come all...it will be a good time. Hope to see you there!

Navy Football – Saturday, October 5

If you like college football, you don't have to go far to enjoy a good game. Navy hosts the Air Force Academy in Annapolis this year. This is the first of the two games that count toward the "Commander in Chief's" trophy. I have made arrangements for a group ticket purchase. If you would like to attend, send me an email, and I will provide you with the logon and password to order your tickets.

SV residents who attend the game are welcome to join a tailgate before and after the game. Tickets will be going fast, so order yours today. Tickets cost $50 per person. If interested, send an email to Chris Pariseau at pariseau907@gmail.com, and I will provide you with the web connection.

Canine Solutions For Seniors -- Monday, June 17, 1- 3 p.m.

Have a Dog? Trying to teach it a new trick? Meet in the Clubhouse Grand Ball Room and hear what Ilene Caroom has to say. Please sign up in the Activities Book in the Clubhouse. This is a free event.

Lying in bed recovering from major surgery, Caroom didn't worry when she dropped a bottle of medicine. "My dog picks up everything for me." Caroom has trained dogs and taught obedience competition since the mid-80s, but what really came in handy was her experience with assistance dogs for disabled people. Retrieving a variety of household objects, carrying notes, alerting when the doorbell rings--useful tasks her dog was eager to do. One night, her alarm clock fell and Strike, her border collie, crawled under the bed to fetch it. That's when Caroom had an idea. "Not everyone needs a costly, full-service assistance dog, but plenty of people could benefit from the skills we teach those dogs!" Inspired, Caroom left her job as a lawyer to create Canine Solutions for Seniors, the first program specially designed to teach seniors to train their pets for tasks that can make their lives easier. "It's not a cookie-cutter approach," emphasizes Caroom. "We'll figure out what you need and what your dog is capable of doing, and then we'll develop the training program together." Caroom believes that all dogs have the ability to help. While it takes a big, strong dog to brace you when you stand up, even the little ones can unzip your jacket when your hands get stiff.

Caroom's focus is on seniors who may not qualify for a full-fledged assistance dog from a training program because they're not disabled or because they don't want to give up their own beloved pets. But she welcomes people and dogs of all ages. "There's so much joy in training a dog to do work that's valuable to you! The dogs are incredibly proud of themselves, and the loving bond that develops through this kind of training is just beautiful!"

Happy Hours

Happy Hour events are enjoyed by many people. It is a way to socialize with your neighbors and friends over a drink and maybe get a small bite to eat. The Lifestyle Committee is looking for people to help with these events. If you can volunteer to help with just one Happy Hour per year, it would be a big benefit to our community. Set up and clean up are quick and easy. Sign up in the Activities Book, and someone from the Lifestyle Committee will contact you to explain what you have to do. It really only takes a few minutes of your time, and you don't have to stay for the whole night. Please consider hosting a Happy Hour.

SV Movie Night

Friday, May 17, 7 p.m., at the Clubhouse: “Here Comes the Boom” starring Kevin James, Salma Hayek, and Henry Winkler.

Summary: A high school biology teacher looks to become a successful mixed-martial arts fighter in an effort to raise money to prevent extra-curricular activities from being axed at his cash-strapped school.

Lunch Bunch – Thursday, June 13, 12 noon

Due to a conflict in the SV Calendar, the Lunch Bunch will meet on a different date and at a different time. We are eating at Carrol's Creek Cafe (410 Severn Avenue, Annapolis, MD, 410-263-8102). We need to leave the SV Clubhouse at 11:15 a.m. in order to get there on time. Carrol's Creek Café has agreed to provide separate checks. Please call Marge Strano at 410-758-2511 or Bea Trotta at 410-758-0332 if you have questions or need a ride. Directions are available on the Carrol's Creek website: www.carrolscreek.com. Hope to see everyone there! – Marge Strano and Bea Trotta

OUTREACH – Carlene Cooke, President

2nd Annual Camp New Dawn Supply Drive

Outreach continues to collect items to be donated to Hospice of Queen Anne's for use at their summer Camp New Dawn, a camp for children who are grieving the loss of a loved one. The final push to collect as many items on Hospice's Wish List as possible will take place May 11-26 when ten homes throughout SV will receive donations at their doors. Villagers may drop off donations at these houses:

Marilyn Williams	246 Concerto	Eleanor Strietman	235 Opera
Teri Nudo	106 Harmony	Linda Blume	224 Orchestra
Lauren Rose	218 Harmony	Brenda Stoltz	107 Overture
Marge Strano	718 Harmony	Sharon North	305 Overture
Nancie Cameron	826 Harmony	Cindy Backer	610 Symphony

The collection box also remains at the Clubhouse. To those of you who have already donated, a huge thank you! Again, Outreach cannot thank SV residents enough for all the support you give our organization so that we can then help other non-profit organizations in QAC. – Linda Blum

Neighbor to Neighbor

After several years of serving as a Street Captain for Concerto Way, Jackie Moran has resigned. Even though she won't be an official member of our group, she plans to continue helping her neighbors as always. I am pleased to announce that Judy Brown has volunteered to serve as a Street Captain for Concerto Way. Please join with me in welcoming her to Neighbor to Neighbor. – Eleanor Strietman

BINGO

Everyone had a great time Friday night playing Bingo; but, unfortunately, no one won the Bingo Jackpot. This means the $100 Jackpot will be carried over the summer break. Mark your calendar for the 2nd Friday in September. Outreach wants to thank everyone who has supported this event and made it so much fun.

See you in September.....

CLUBS AND CLASSES

READING FOR FUN BOOK CLUB – Jack Hennessey

We seem to have gotten out of sync since we changed the meeting date for future Book Club meetings. Dorthea Turek issued the last report in Jack's absence. Our next meeting will be on Thursday, May 16, at 1 p.m. The book chosen for this meeting is Gone Girl by Gillian Flynn.

On a warm summer morning in North Carthage, Missouri, it is Nick and Amy Dunne's fifth wedding anniversary. Presents are being wrapped and reservations are being made, when Nick's clever and beautiful wife disappears from their rented McMansion on the Mississippi River. Nick is a suspect and is very evasive when talking to the police. But is he really a killer?

All residents are invited to sit in on the discussion of the book and to share in a delicious beverage and dessert. Call Jack Hennessey at 410-758-487 if you would like to attend.

TENNIS CLUB – Larry Miller

Spring is here and it is time for SV tennis. The Board approved the recoating of the tennis courts, which should be scheduled later this month. The recoating will require at least three days for the different applications. . . See you on the courts.

NEIGHBORHOOD NEWS

QUEEN ANNE'S COUNTY HISTORICAL SOCIETY TOUR

"What is so rare as a day in June . . ." especially one spent leisurely touring lovely local gardens and then enjoying a Victorian High Tea with friends and neighbors? The opportunity to spend Saturday, June 15, doing just that in historic Centreville is being hosted by the Queen Anne's County Historical Society. From noon to 2 p.m., explore and enjoy a private garden on South Liberty Street. This beautifully landscaped and maintained garden was recently featured on the 2013 Maryland House and Garden Pilgrimage. Also stop in the Society's two historic houses – Tucker House, built on the second lot sold when the town of Centreville was laid out, and Wright's Chance, a plantation home, circa early to mid-1700's. The garden behind Tucker House was designed by the Queen Anne's County Garden Club and features plantings of colonial bulbs, roses, and perennials. The houses will feature special exhibits, and docents will be available to answer questions and lead tours. Then, from 2 - 4 p.m., sample the fare of a Victorian High Tea featuring a variety of finger sandwiches and desserts served at historic St. Paul's Episcopal Church. Tickets include entry to the gardens and houses as well as the tea and are $25 for Historical Society members and $30 for non-members. (This might also be a good opportunity to join the Society!) You may obtain reservations/tickets by calling the Society's office at 410-758-3010 or by emailing info@qachistory.org. Please stop by St. Paul's to pick up your ticket and a map before starting your tour. – Eleanor Strietman

OUTDOOR POOL RULES AND REGULATIONS

As the outdoor pool season approaches, you might want to ask yourself these questions:

Do you know when the outdoor pool is available for residents and adult guests only? Do you know what “pool toys” are permitted for children using the pool? Now is the time to refresh your knowledge of all of the official Rules and Regulations regarding pool usage. All the information is on the SV Website – go to the Village Management web page and click on “Clubhouse Rules” on the right hand side under “Clubhouse Documents.”

This document also contains information on use of the Clubhouse, the indoor pool, the exercise room, etc. It is a good idea to review the entire document now and then to prevent possible unintentional violations.

Dear Symphony Village,

On behalf of the Queen Anne's Chorale, I would like to thank Symphony Village for their continued support of our concerts. You have been loyal audience members, and it has been duly noted by all of the singers in the Chorale. Your support has helped make it possible for us to continue planning and presenting high quality concerts in a professional venue such as Chesapeake College.

It has been our pleasure to perform for such an appreciative and enthusiastic group of music lovers such as you. Our next concerts will be “Angels Among Us” on Saturday, December 7, 2013 and “Pirates Plus” on Friday, April 26, 2014. See you there!

LAMP POSTS

by Carol Hodges with technical help from Bob Offerman

Lately, when walking Symphony Village at night, certain areas are dark because many Lamp Post lights have burned out or residents have chosen to turn them off. Lamp Post lights are operated with a solar regulator. Leave the light on, and the lights will go off in the morning and back on in the evening. If this does not happen, the regulator needs replacement. These are easy to replace either personally or by a professional. Motorhead Electric replaced ours. Some residents feel that leaving the light on is costly, or they do not know how to change the bulbs.

The Daily Cost:

Actually the cost for running 3 incandescent candelabra bulbs is 9 cents per day.

$(3 \times 25 \text{ watts} \times 12 \text{ hours/day}) / ((1000 \text{ hrs/kWH}) \times ($.10/\text{kWH})) = $.09/\text{day}$

The cost for running 3 LED bulbs is about 1 cent per day.

$(3 \times 3 \text{ watts} \times 12 \text{ hours/day}) / ((1000 \text{ hrs/kWH}) \times ($.10/\text{kWH})) = $.01/\text{day}$

(Above calcs assume year-long average of 12 hours/day and current electric costs of $.10/kWH.)

The Annual Cost:

Assuming 12 hours/day for 365 days, LED bulbs save $29.20 annually and will last 6+ years.

The bulbs are replaced by unscrewing the crown nut on top of the lamp and then removing the nut that is under it. The head can then be lifted up and off of the post.

I purchased LED bulbs at 1000 Bulbs. The cost was one for $10 each. If you walk by my house at night, you can judge if the light is adequate for your tastes. Incandescent bulbs can be bought locally for 3 for under $10 and need to be replaced annually.

It is my personal opinion that Symphony Village looks warmer and more inviting if all of the Lamp Post lights are on, plus it is safer. If you have any questions or need help, please call Carol Hodges at 410-758-0591.

A “3D DREAM” ADVENTURE

by Charlie Scheck

Charlie Scheck is a Symphony Village resident (410-758-3547) who has been turning his life into one adventure after another. Here is another “adventure with Charlie.” And for those of you who missed his adventure to Texas to pick up his classic car, take a look at the Libretto Sept, 2012.

My story begins with my fascination in the 3D printing technology. Recently I discussed this interest with Darcy Schoeninger, Director of the QAC Arts Council Centre for the Arts. I also told Darcy about my desire to somehow introduce 3D printing at the Arts Center to educate crafters in this new technology.

This past April, on a trip to Tennessee, I turned my idea into action when I stopped off in Blacksburg, Virginia, to visit the Virginia Polytechnic Institute and tour their Engineering Department’s Dream Lab headed by Dr. Christopher Williams. I had called the Institute earlier and made arrangements with Dr. Williams to visit the Lab. As with most Universities, the campus is very complicated and spread out. Nevertheless, I was able to rendezvous with Drew Snelling, the grad student tagged to show me around. Touring the old Mechanical Engineering building brought back memories of my college days at Rutgers. Before entering the Dream Lab, I got to see their “Dream Vendor.” Essentially, it is a vending machine where students can develop their own software, install it, and print out 3D objects to their own desires.

In the Dream Lab, I was greeted with a table full of items, large and small, which were all made by the students and staff using the various 3D printers in the Lab. The printers varied from small entry-level printers costing $2,000 to full blown industrial sized units costing $20,000 and up. I took some pictures of the items on the table, many of which are virtually IMPOSSIBLE to manufacture by any other manufacturing methods—hence, just one of the values of 3D printing. The printers used various methods of forming the pieces. The printer that was currently running was laying down a microscopic layer of material, and the “Backstroke” was, instantly, curing that layer with a beam of light. I asked some questions of a student in the lab regarding a wild looking large item. He explained that it was the framework of a military helicopter drone—a four-bladed helicopter which could be folded up to make it easy to carry. The student explained that one thing they will be able to do, when they develop and improve parts, is email the software to build the improved part to the soldiers in the field; and the soldiers will build the new part using their own field version of a 3D printer—an especially valuable capability!!

I was also favored by a visit to some 3D printer research. This “Lab” was nothing more than a small corner of a small office. However, the student there, brand new at his job, was involved with some exciting research. His charge was to develop techniques to produce increasingly smaller parts, currently looking like small rings. These parts are destined to become integrated into a latticework upon which living cells could be deposited and grow. The student planned to form channels within these very small parts which would act as micro-capillaries to carry blood flow.

Drew, my guide, was personally involved in a special project to develop molds using the 3D printing technology. Here again, some molds are likely IMPOSSIBLE to make by other manufacturing methods. Of course, this work involved working with different materials, mostly metal based, as necessary to provide mold structures that can withstand the pouring of molten metals into them.

After telling Dr. Williams about my desire to introduce the possibility of crafters using the 3D technology, he graciously suggested that the company making the “Cube” 3D printer might be the best one to approach initially since they may have the staff and flexibility to work with the idea of a demo for a “Crafters Class” at the QAC Arts Council Centre for the Arts. . . . Stay tuned for a possible 3D Crafters Class.

RESTAURANT REVIEW

Ellen's Coffee Shoppe

By Karin Anne Larsen

Mr. Buzzy Lane owns one of the classic breakfast places you don't see much of anymore. How many places still exist where the waitresses know the locals by name and the locals sit together every morning? Okay, Ellen's isn't fancy, but it sure is quaint and their brew of coffee tastes great. The photos of 1931 Chestertown lining the walls, and the fact that you can still manage to eat for as little as $5 is wonderful.

My visits to Ellen's have not only been filled with bottomless coffee, homey atmosphere, and quick service but also with downright tempting food choices. The staff, consisting of Ms. Green, Ms. Crouch, Ms. Mercer, Ms. Brady, Ms. Neal, and Ms. Clough will make you feel right at home, while you sample any style of eggs, omelets, cream chipped beef, Canadian bacon, scrapple, hash, and delicious biscuits or muffins. The Blueberry Pancakes, packed with blueberries, cannot be beat; and the French Toast is yummy. Bruce's ham and cheese omelet was cooked perfectly as were his side orders of home fries and scrapple. Don't forget to also sample Ellen's waffles as they really are delicious.

The lunch menu includes appetizers, homemade soups, salads, hot sandwiches, burgers, and baskets. Try one of their baskets of clam strips, fried shrimp, chicken tenders, or fish and chips – all for under $8.50. Side choices include mashed potatoes, French Fries, applesauce, coleslaw, and beets for $2.50 each. The chili is delicious and so are the clubs, and salads such as the cold platter salad and the salad sampler of chicken, egg, or tuna salad served on a bed of lettuce, tomato, and slaw.

Ellen's is so welcoming and it's not just my nostalgia seeping into this review. It may be that their French Fries with gravy and cheese deliciously reminded me of my youth. Come experience Ellen's with its local flair.

Ellen's Coffee Shoppe is located at 205 Spring Ave. Chestertown, MD 21620. Telephone is 410-810-1992. The hours are Monday – Saturday 6 a.m. – 2 p.m. and Sunday 6 a.m.-1 p.m. Breakfast is served all day. During the Goose and Deer Hunting Season, the restaurant opens at 5 a.m.

RECIPE OF THE MONTH

Sour Cream Pound Cake From the kitchen of Madeline Manning

3 sticks butter or margarine	dash salt
3 cups sugar	1 teaspoon vanilla extract
6 eggs	¼ teaspoon baking soda
3 cups flour	1 cup sour cream

Preheat oven to 350 degrees.

Cream the butter, then add the sugar and cream together.

Add the eggs, one at a time, beating after each addition.

Alternately add flour and sour cream and mix.

Add salt, vanilla, and baking soda; mix.

Place batter in a Bundt pan. Bake for 1 hour or until a toothpick in the middle comes out clean.
