BINGO

Well, folks, no one won the Jackpot this past Friday, so it keeps growing. Of course, lots of other money prizes were won, but the Big One is now worth $125. Remember, “You have to play to win.” So bring your lucky charm and come to the next BINGO on Friday, October 11.

4th Annual Artisan's Fair

Artisan's Fair

As you all no doubt already know, the Artisan's Fair will be held on Saturday, September 21, 10 a.m. – 3 p.m., at the American Legion Hall in Centreville. We have a great mix of exhibitors and crafts, so you are sure to find something for a perfect gift for any occasion. We have many first-time participants, so if you attended in past years, you will find new items this year. We will again have three raffle items – a beautiful “points and pinwheels” handmade quilt, made and donated by Joyce Washburn, Nancie Cameron's sister; a gorgeous handmade ceramic vase with painted flowers (right) by our own Teri Nudo; and a tea and coffee gift basket with wooden serving tray donated by Loretta Quigley. And don't forget to come for lunch – a gourmet sandwich or hot dog, chips, dessert, and a beverage all for only $7.

Bakers Still Needed: We are still looking for people to bake mini-quick breads to be sold at the Artisan's Fair. If you can help, please contact Willie DiLaura, 443-262-8062. If you need a recipe, why not try Banana Nut Bread in Libretto Recipes on the SV Website. If you need disposable baking tins, Willie has them to give to you.

Baking Volunteers: If you have volunteered to bake quick bread, cookies, or brownies for the Fair, please deliver your baked goods to the Arts and Crafts Room at the Clubhouse on Friday, September 20, 9–11 a.m. Thank you for your help.

Hope to see you all at the Fair!

Fifth Annual Food Drive

Start watching those grocery sales as Symphony Village Outreach prepares for the Fifth Annual Food Drive for QAC Social Services. Slated for November 13-17, with delivery in time for Thanksgiving distribution, we hope to collect one more item than last year's total of 2,265. We will be looking for boxed goods such as cereals, pastas, and grains plus canned goods such as soups, vegetables, fruits, tuna, meats, peanut butter, jelly, pasta sauce, etc. No outdated pantry items, please. Your generosity has helped many families in need, especially at holiday time. We hope to provide a wonderful gift again this year! Look for collection house information in next month's Libretto. Any questions, please call Loretta Quigley at 410-758-6775 or email lorettaquigley@yahoo.com.

CLUBS AND CLASSES

BIRD CLUB – Linda Blume

The ruby-throated hummingbirds leave Maryland in mid to late-September. The males will leave first on their journey to over winter in Mexico, Central and South America, and the West Indies. I look forward to their return next April. I also look forward to the Canada geese and snow geese reappearing in our skies very soon. Growing up and living many years where a flyover of geese was a rare and noteworthy sight, I truly enjoy all our birds here on the Eastern Shore. If you enjoy watching wild birds, I hope you will attend our Fall Picnic on Thursday, October 17, noon, at the Picnic Pavilion at the Clubhouse. In case of heavy rain, we'll adjourn inside. Picnic fare will be provided – bring nothing but yourself! Please sign up in the Activities Book. If you aren't receiving SV Bird Club email and would like to do so, just let me know, and I'll add your email address to my group list.

GARDEN CLUB – Jack Hennessey

We had a successful weeding party on August 10, and we planted some new annuals in time for the Labor Day Picnic. We were able to verify that the purple martins did leave the whole area early this year. Sandee Love provided information that one can see as many as 700,000 purple martins in early August at Lake Murray in South Carolina. Joan and I are planning to see this next year. Several residents are using the Gazebo for family picnics. Great idea!

JOY OF MUSIC – Eleanor Strietman

The “JOY OF MUSIC” is coming back to Symphony Village! SV residents will once again have a wonderful opportunity to explore every aspect of music – from composers and different styles of music to the various instruments that make music possible. The “Joy of Music” classes will be held in the Clubhouse at 3 p.m. on the second and fourth Mondays of the month. The sessions will again be taught by Mr. Bob Huntington, the Artistic Director of the Queen Anne's Chorale. Possessed of a wonderful sense of humor and an encyclopedic knowledge of music, Bob makes each class a different delight! He talks (a little), we listen (to him and then to music), we laugh, and we learn! Each session costs only $5 per person and usually lasts about an hour. So, come to the Clubhouse for the first class on Monday, September 23; the topic will be “The White City.” Future topics include: “Tin Pan Alley” (October 14); “Thou Shalt Not Steal!” (October 28); “Man's Best Friend” (November 11); “The Humoresque” (November 25); and “Stormy Weather” (December 9). Mark your calendar now!

READING FOR FUN BOOK CLUB – Jack Hennessey

The Book Club met on August 15 to discuss the book, The Silver Star, by Jeannette Walls. Dorthea Turek recommended the book which received a rating of 7.93 (on a scale of 1 to 10). Any book receiving a rating of 8.0 or higher is considered exceptional.

On Thursday, September 19, at 7 p.m., the Book Club will meet in the Clubhouse to discuss the book The Casual Vacancy by J.K. Rowling, the famous author of the Harry Potter series. Jack selected the book. The novel is set in the small English town of Pagford with a cobbled market square and an ancient abbey – but what lies behind is a town at war. When Barry Fairbrother dies in his early forties, the town is left in shock – rich at war with poor, parents at war with children, and teachers at war with pupils – Pagford is a town in disarray. The empty seat on the parish council soon becomes the catalyst for the biggest war. Who will triumph in an election fraught with passion and duplicity? SV residents are invited to attend this Book Club meeting in the Clubhouse to learn how this story ends and to participate in the discussion.

Incidentally, Book Club members have been participating in plans to expand the Symphony Village Library. Jack has submitted a revised plan for new shelving. We have been advised that this plan will be reviewed by management on September 19. If approved, we will proceed with construction and issue new rules for use of our lending Library. In the meantime, the old rules apply. Since all books are donated, there is no need to check out books or to return them. All novels issued more than 20 years ago have been discarded. Jack has 4 boxes of books in his garage to replace discarded books. If anyone has books they would like to donate, please get them to Jack for integration into the system.

SV SINGLES “Toby’s Dinner Theatre” –Pauline Dulin, Chair

SV Singles will attend the 11 a.m. matinee of “Miracle on 34th Street” at Toby’s Dinner Theatre in Columbia on Sunday, November 17. For a group of 20 seniors, the cost is $42.45 per person; with fewer than 20, the cost is $45.45 per person. The cost includes dinner, coffee and tea, and the show. Please sign up in the Activities Book before Monday, September 16, since Holiday musical matinees sell out fast. Dorthea Turek will make the reservation and collect the money at that time. If you have any questions, call Dorthea at 410-758-8554.

BB&T Wealth cordially invites you and a guest to join us for

Please join us for food, drinks and fellowship. Meet the members of the BB&T Wealth team on the Eastern Shore as well as other individuals in your community.

RESTAURANT REVIEW

SUGAR BUNS AIRPORT CAFÉ BAKERY & CATERING

By Karin Anne Larsen

Crabzilla Sandwich

For soaring food and scenery, try Sugar Buns, a special place where the food, atmosphere, and service are fresh and inspiring. Dining here for breakfast or lunch while taking in the view of the runway is seriously uplifting! How can you enter this charming French Country atmosphere, sit at one of the dozen gingham-covered tables, watch lots of aircraft taking off and landing through a sunny window and not feel a little more up?

Inspired by a lack of creative dessert choices in the area, Susan Leonard opened Sugar Buns in 2010. You will find this special place right inside the Easton/Newnam Field Airport, sharing space with a pilot's shop and lounge, as well as airport service and management offices. So, what about the food choices at this airport café? Susan explains that, "Each menu choice is inspired experimentation with a generous dollop of reverence for the sweet tooth." And speaking of a sweet tooth, beware getting hooked, like I did, on the delicious Sugar Bun (small sweet bread with a flat bottom), one of many yummy choices among a wide array of desserts freshly baked throughout the year.

Traveling as a flight attendant, Susan spent decades analyzing recipes and flavors from layovers around the world. Her 17 varieties on the Eggs Benedict Menu reflect her tastes and travels. Some favorites are the Eastern Shore, eggs served on an English muffin with grilled ham, poached eggs, and homemade hollandaise sauce with bacon and a jumbo lump crab artichoke bottom and the Oh La La Parisian Benedict, with warm Brie and Dijon mustard on a croissant. Breakfast is served all day at Sugar Buns. The Elvis French Toast stuffed with bananas, honey, and peanut butter rolled in granola is delicious, as is the famous Crabzilla Sandwich. (See picture.) "Their awesome crabby creation has 6 'legs' of bacon, thick sliced tomato, lettuce, Jumbo Lump Crab Cake, and several homemade onion rings...all on Texas Toast with Olive Eyes, served on an 'isle' of fries." Lunch includes 13 types of hamburgers and 16 or so sandwiches such as the Monster B-L-T and Maine Lobster Roll, to name a few. Don't leave without trying a soup and salad. The Cream of Crab, Lobster Bisque, and Cobb Salad are good choices. For a finale at Sugar Buns, sample the Jamboree Cupcake, one choice of at least 12. This particular one tasted delicious, with a very moist pumpkin spice cake, sweet maple cream cheese frosting, and topped with pecan caramel sauce. Okay SV folks, instead of taking an airplane ride with airline food, enjoy a truly uplifting meal at Sugar Buns Airport Café!

Sugar Buns Café, Bakery & Catering is located at 29137 Newnam Road in Easton, MD, 21601. Telephone: 410-820-4220 and email: info@sugarbuns.ca or www.sugarbuns.com. Gluten-free choices are available.
