Symphony Village's Newsletter

February 2014

Vol. IX - No. 2

MISSION STATEMENT: To enhance the quality of life and promote a harmonious community through the timely publication of accurate information about residents, events, and activities in and around Symphony Village.

Musings from the Board

A few words about the Snow Removal Policy. First a little history. In 2009, a sub-committee of the Operations Committee was tasked to create guidelines on snow removal for the community. The original guidelines included a starting point of a 2-inch accumulation and included all community driveways/sidewalks. When the HOA asked for bids, no one wanted to bid without a guaranteed retainer even if we had a winter without snow. Dennison finally agreed to take the contract and then sublet it out to the Sod Farm, the company we had when we had the horrendous winter four years ago.

The policy has been fine tuned to where it is now. Our contractor, who is not guaranteed anything unless he shows up, is called when we have at least a 3-inch of snow (Centreville clears streets at 4-inches). Work is also segregated into 3 phases (we can opt for all, some, or just one – at the discretion of the Board liaison): 1) Clubhouse parking lots and sidewalks; 2) Unfinished roads; and/or 3) Homeowners' driveways and walks from the driveway to the front door. On corner houses, the driveways and a short path from the front door to the street will be cleared.

The contractor has been told that when they are doing homeowners' driveways to start at different locations in the community so that the same homes aren't last every time. The contract calls for calcium chloride to be applied where requested to driveways and walkways and rock salt for the roads. Homeowners who do not want chemicals applied should have a ribbon attached to their front lamp post.

On a snow day – homeowners will be notified via email by the property manager as to which phase will be done. At the January Board of Directors' Meeting, Manager Dennis Sesplankis reported that removal of the snow from the first two storms cost close to $31,000. – Dave Peterson

COMMITTEE REPORTS

COVENANTS COMMITTEE – Ellen Norman, Chair

On January 13, the Covenants Committee met for the first time this year. We have six new members this year and five returning members. Ellen Norman was re-elected as Chairperson and Chris Pariseau is Vice-Chair. Chris is also serving as secretary. Our meetings continue to be the second Monday of the month at 1:30 p.m. in the Clubhouse Ballroom. Anyone may come to our meetings to observe us at work. Our next meeting will be March 10.

We ask residents to turn in a Modification Request for any work planned around the exterior of the home. These can be found on the SV Website (at Exterior Modification Form) or request a form from the office. Please be sure to include all pertinent information needed for us to review your request. This also includes a plat of your property. We look forward, with your help, to continue making Symphony Village a beautiful neighborhood.

Please sign up in advance.
- Garage Sale – Saturday, April 12.

Volunteers Needed

Volunteers are needed to host Happy Hours on the first Fridays and third Saturdays during the year. We used to get volunteers, but lately no one has signed up. Since Tim sets up tables, all that is needed is to put out plastic ware and plates and napkins and dispose of any leftover food after the event. Sign up in the Activities Book or call Carolyn Harty at 410-758-2626.

OUTREACH – Carlene Cooke, President

Neighbor to Neighbor– Eleanor Strietman, Chair

As happens at the beginning of every year, Neighbor to Neighbor has some old business to report. As always, the past year was very busy. Our Street Captains sent a total of 131 cards to neighbors offering everything from get-well wishes and sympathy to congratulations for big and little joys. The Captains coordinated the preparation and delivery of 54 meals. Captains visited neighbors 73 times and provided general assistance on 13 occasions. They shopped three times for shut-in neighbors and processed three requests for the loan of medical equipment. Prayer requests were forwarded to the Prayer Chain 16 times, and 14 donations were made to various charities in memory of residents. In addition, a charitable donation was made in memory of Norman Rychwalski on behalf of the community. Pages were entered in the Memorial Book in memory of six residents.

I am certain that 2014 will also be a busy year for Neighbor to Neighbor. How nice it is to know that Street Captains will always be available to help.

Your Symphony Village Outreach program will be sponsoring its first

Family Afternoon Tea Party

When: Saturday, April 26, at the Clubhouse

Time: 2 p.m. Book

Ticket price and sign-up sheets will be available shortly in the Activities room with a more complete description of the event.

This promises to be a sellout, so don't delay once reservations become available.

Please mark your calendars for a fun, family afternoon!

We are asking residents to invite their daughters (also in-laws), granddaughters, and great-granddaughters to this event. Also invited would be sisters (and in-laws) or nieces or cousins.

5th Annual Card and Game Party – Carlene Cooke

What a great time everyone had at the Fifth Annual Card and Game Party on January 30. There was good camaraderie, fun card and game playing, a wonderful lunch, very nice raffle items, and door prizes — and great weather! The Outreach Committee would like to thank the residents of Symphony Village and their friends for once again supporting this event! Also, thanks to the ladies from Kent Island, Prospect Bay, and the Western Shore for joining us.

Lauren Rose and Carlene Cooke headed up the Card Party part of the event, Sandee Love chaired the door prizes, and she and Loretta Quigley ran the raffles. Nancie Cameron and her fantastic team, Teri Nudo, Bea Trotta, Linda Gardner, Barbara Locke, Patty Parks, Anita Dell, Margo Wagner, Cindy Backer, Courtney Pilgrim, Anita Morris, Linda Blume, Loretta Quigley, and Elaine Shenkle provided nice snacks in the morning and a delicious lunch. And once again, Willie DiLaura provided bags of 'card suit' sugar cookies for each participant, and Linda Blume made cross stitch bookmarks for favors.

A big 'thank you' also goes to those who contributed raffle items: Cindy Backer for the lovely quilt, won by guest Lynn Marano; Teri Nudo for the pretty ceramic vase, won by guest Abby Bookhultz; and Betty Hernan for the gift certificates to Chili's Restaurant, won by Symphony Village resident Ella Hamilton. Queenstown Premium Outlets donated the nice gift bags.

The 50/50 raffle winner was Symphony Village resident, Christa Fookes, who graciously donated a portion back to Outreach for the Card Party beneficiary. Thank you, Christa.

Proceeds from this event go to the Adult Day Medical Care Program of Chesterwye, located on Kent Island. And because of your support and volunteerism, Outreach is able to give them a very nice donation. Thank you!!

CLUBS AND CLASSES

BIRD CLUB – Linda Blume

The 17th annual Great Backyard Bird Count will take place February 14 – 17. Launched in 1998 by the Cornell Lab of Ornithology and National Audubon Society, the Great Backyard Bird Count was the first online citizen-science project to collect data on wild birds and to display results in near real-time. All levels of experience may participate - beginner to advanced. To participate, tally the numbers and kinds of birds you see for at least 15 minutes on one or more days of the count in your yard. The information is then easily entered via the website. Go to the website for more information.

DINING IN

A good time and great lasagna with all the trimmings was had by all 12 at Nancie and Don

Cameron's home in January. The next Dining In will be at Nancy Pashby's home on Sunday, February 23, at 6 p.m. Lauren and Bob Rose have agreed to be hosts as well if needed. GARDEN CLUB and VICTORY GARDEN – Jack Hennessey

Our decision to not harvest any of the flower seed pods was a good one. The birds were flocking to the gazebo in search of food during our cold and snowy January. In addition, management authorized us to install a thistle feeder, a sunflower feeder, and a suet feeder, which have attracted numerous and varied birds. The best time to observe these birds is about 7 a.m. and 4 p.m. We have seen goldfinches, house finches, white throated sparrows, mourning doves, blue jays, juncos, cardinals, and mockingbirds. We have even seen an occasional woodpecker attracted to the suet feeder. Incidentally, K-Mart seems to be the best place to purchase bird supplies.

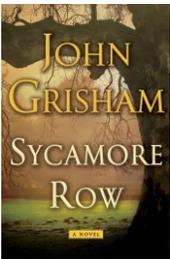

Also, unless you want to attract starlings and English sparrows, do not use general purpose food, which contains lots of cracked corn and millet. I did observe an occasional hawk stalking our bird feeder, and actually saw a hawk swooping down to grab a songbird as it left our feeder. I guess that is part of the food chain. C'est la vie!

I have also started saving egg shells, which I grind up to provide calcium for the purple martins during their nesting season. They will be arriving early in April. Interested residents can check the martin migration pattern on their computer.

Steve Guy reports that two new gardeners will be joining us in the spring. However, one of our gardening teams has resigned. We still have room for four more gardeners (or teams). Steve will be scheduling two more "Group Work Parties," which were very successful last year. Contact Steve if you are interested in joining the Gazebo Flower Gardeners at 301-641-8728.

Weather permitting; we will start tilling the victory garden in time for spring planting, typically on St. Patrick's Day. Dave Peterson will be tuning up his tiller for the occasion. In the meantime, stay warm, and pray for an early thaw.

READING FOR FUN BOOK CLUB – Jack Hennessey

Great news! Our first book for 2014 was a smash hit! The book we read was Sycamore Row by John Grisham. It is extremely popular. One of our members was number 23 on the wait list at the library. As is our custom, we did buy a copy of this book for the SV Library. Several of our members get copies on their Kindle or other electronic gadgets. This book received a rating of 8.9 on a scale of 1 to 10. This is the highest rating for any book that we have read. (The previous high was Sarah's Key, by Tatiana de Rosnay.) As recorded in our January report, the story involves the competition between a last minute handwritten will and a prior recorded will. Read the book to find out which will prevails, revealed in the surprise ending. Joan provided a delicious avocado dip and chips, with peach tea to wash it down.

Our next meeting will be on Tuesday, February 18, in the Clubhouse. All residents are invited to sit in on our meetings. We want to welcome Don and Nancie Cameron who have recently joined the Book Club.

It is our policy to not reveal upcoming selections except to members. This may help to ensure that our members do not wind up as number 23 on the reserve list! Y'all come and enjoy the discussions and the dessert.

NEIGHBORHOOD NEWS

“Welcome Aboard” Tim Spangler

We have a new face at the Clubhouse, Tim Spangler. Tim was hired in January as our Maintenance Tech. Fortunately for us, one of our residents knew Tim was looking for a job and suggested he call Dennis. Tim's future ambition may be to join the Marines, but right now he is delighted to be working here at Symphony Village, and we are delighted to have him. Next time you visit the Clubhouse be sure to look for him, introduce yourself, and welcome him aboard.

Using the SV Pavilion for Private Parties

Have you ever wanted to have a family picnic or crab feast at the Picnic Pavilion near the bocce ball courts and the swimming pool? Well, the HOA Board of Directors has made it easier to plan your private party. There are now “courtesy sign-up sheets” in the Activities Book where you can list the date you would like to use the Pavilion for your party. Keep in mind the Pavilion is reserved annually on three holiday weekends: Memorial Day, July Fourth, and Labor Day. Additionally, neighbors get together to play bocce ball at the Pavilion one evening a week during the spring and summer. Keep these events in mind when you choose your date. (Check the monthly SV Calendar for dates and times.)

Although the courtesy sheet does not reserve the Pavilion, it does let others know your projected plans and may prevent unhappy surprises. It is our hope the courtesy sign-up sheets at least make it easier to plan. Because this is a new procedure, however, there will most likely be some kinks to work out. Please be patient and please be courteous to your neighbors. If two neighbors want the same day, we hope they can either share the Pavilion or one can choose another date. We welcome your suggestions.

Make them known on the Daily Bulletin or write them down and give them to Nancy at the front desk.

Calling All Bluebird Lovers!

There is talk around the Village of promoting an increase in the housing of bluebirds in our community. Preliminary plans have been discussed to create a “bluebird trail” throughout Symphony Village, which would include both private properties and common areas.

With that in mind, there is now a plan to provide “official” bluebird houses (constructed by a local Boy Scout troop) to residents using a pre-paid/sign-up procedure. Each interested homeowner should sign-up in the Activities Book at the Clubhouse within a month’s period (mid-February to mid-March), and provide $20 in cash or check, to be kept temporarily by Nancy or Dennis. This pre-paid amount will not include payment for a pole/stake or predator guard. Residents will be provided “fact sheets” (with instructions for installing and monitoring the houses) when they pick up the houses.

Once the houses on private lots have been installed, then plans to add houses on common properties to “complete” the trail will follow. So, indicate your interest in the Activities Book beginning February 15, along with a $20 payment. The check should be made out to Boy Scout Troop #1631 as indicated in the Activities Book. Questions? Call Betty McAtee at 410-758-2443.

Winter Energy Saving Tips

by Bob Offerman

Minimize Drafts and Heat/Cooling Loss

1. Lock windows to ensure they're fully closed and sealed.
2. Close insulating shades or drapes, especially in rooms you're not using. Insulating shades such as closed-cell honeycomb really work.
3. If you have windows with a southern exposure, open the shades and drapes on sunny afternoons to let direct sunlight and solar warmth into the room. (Make sure ceiling fans are operating in reverse (blowing upward) mode.) Close shades as soon as direct sunlight wanes.
4. Check for air leaks around the exterior doors. If necessary, the clearance at the bottom of the door can be adjusted by raising/lowering the threshold (located on the floor, under the door). It is usually adjusted by turning the screws that hold it to the floor. A "sweep" can also be screwed to the bottom of the door if still drafty. If you have drafts around the sides or top of the door, self-adhesive foam insulation strips can be applied. (Available at a hardware store.)

(For many more tips, read the rest of this article online on the Sources page.)

RESTAURANT REVIEW

Basmati Restaurant

by Dorthea Turek

If you are looking for a different kind of food or if you enjoy Indian cuisine, my friends and I recommend Basmati restaurant. I have eaten there several times and enjoy their food. They have a lunch buffet, and you can order from the menu at lunch and dinner. One reason we have chosen to eat there is that they have vegan food. If you have a vegan in the family, it is a good choice. They will add tofu to any vegan dish.

The appetizer we ordered was Vegetable Samosa. This is a triangular pastry stuffed with potatoes and green peas, and then fried. It is delicious. The Samosa also can be ordered stuffed with meat and green peas.

The dishes we ordered were Chicken Tikka Masala (chicken breast pieces marinated in spices and yogurt, baked in a tandoor oven, and cooked in a tomato-based creamy sauce), Chicken Korma (mildly spiced chicken flavored with coconut and simmered in cream and nuts), Lamb Methi (pieces of lamb cooked with fenugreek in a curry sauce), and Chana Masala (chickpeas cooked with onions, tomatoes, and spices). Tofu was added to this dish. When you order your food, they ask you how much heat you want and cook it to your request. Flavorful basmati rice is served with the meal. We added to our meal Tandoori Naan (bread baked in a clay oven (tandoor)). Our favorite desserts are Kheer (Indian rice pudding with almonds and raisins) and Kulfi (Indian ice cream made with condensed milk, almonds, pistachios, and rose water).

Basmati has a very long menu with many choices.

The restaurant is located at 2444 Solomon's Island Road (Route 2), Annapolis, between Chevy's and Harbor Mall. Lunch hours are Monday—Friday, 11:30 a.m. - 2:30 p.m., Saturday—Sunday, noon-3 p.m. Dinner hours are Sunday—Thursday, 5 - 9:30, Friday & Saturday, 5 - 10:30 p.m. The phone number is 410-266-6355.
